not.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well what...how far do you think your amendment will go, ultimately, even if it's added to his bill, if he does not like it?

SENATOR JENSEN: I think he would accept this amendment. That's all I can say.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Is Senator Wickersham on the floor?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Wickersham?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'd like to ask Senator Wickersham a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Would you respond to a question, Senator Wickersham?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Wickersham, as you come to your mike, do you agree with Senator Jensen's amendment?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Senator Chambers, I have decided that I would indeed vote for his amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. I'm then going to see how my colleagues vote on this amendment, then see what we wind up in terms of a bill. If you're going to go back to where the Governor started you, then you may have something that will spare you some additional work. That means the surcharge on business comes back before us. But who is going to bring it back to the floor? The Legislature has still folded. This bill is not going to be in a form to prevent a Special Session. I don't know whether there will be enough votes to adopt Senator Jensen's amendment or not, but on the chance that there may be, I need to ask him an additional question. Senator Jensen, may I ask you another question?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Jensen, would you respond to Senator Chambers question?
